Day 6 : Ferry to Belfast ... then Capital of Northern Ireland, visit the famous Giant's Causeway and city tour of Belfast

Morning drive to Stranraer to cross the Irish Sea for Belfast. 2 hrs cruise. On arrival we drive to Giant's Causeway... an area of about 40,000 interlocking basalt columns resulting from a volcanic eruption. It is located on the North East coast about 3 kilometres (2 miles) north of the town of Bush mills in County Antrim, Northern Ireland. It was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1986, and a National Nature Reserve in 1987 (by the Department of the Environment for Northern Ireland). In a 2005, the Giant's Causeway was named as the fourth greatest natural wonder in the United Kingdom. According to one of the legends, the giant Finn McCool fancied a female giant on the Scottish island of Staffa and built some stepping stones to the island where similar rock formations are found. The more prosaic explanation is that lava erupted from an underground fissure and crystallised some 60 million years ago. Post tour return to Belfast and do a city tour. Overnight in Belfast. (Breakfast/Dinner)

Breakfast,Dinner

Day 7 : Onto Dublin... the Capital of Ireland... Guided tour of the city

Morning proceed to Dublin... the Capital of Ireland. On arrival do a guided city tour which takes in this "fair city's" highlights. We will see Phoenix Park and enjoy view of Dublin Castle and St.Patrick's Cathedral and our highlight will be a visit to Trinity College established in 1592 and set on a beautiful campus with lots of delightfully historic buildings set amongst the greenery and cobblestones. Balance day at free to explore. Part of Dublin's charm lies in its excellent selection of hip boutiques with eclectic designer names giving each a highly individual feel. Dublin has enough department stores to keep even the most die-hard shopper happy. Brown Thomas on Grafton Street is a salubrious spot with an enormous shoe hall and top designer labels. Arnotts on Henry Street has re-invented itself in the last decade and is now a gleaming behemoth, with more emphasis on high-street labels than designer. Branches of British department stores House of Fraser and Harvey Nicols in Dundrum Shopping Centre, Debenhams in Dublin are all worth exploring. Overnight in Dublin. (Breakfast/Dinner)

Breakfast,Dinner

Day 8 : Day excursion to Cliff of Moher

Morning proceed to the beautiful Cliff of Moher. Cliffs are 214 m high at the highest point and range for 8 kilometers over the Atlantic Ocean on the western seaboard of County Clare.
