Day 2 : Enjoy an orientation tour of the city of Athens with Acropolis and the New Acropolis Museum.

Start the day with an unique opportunity to experience the striking contrasts that make Athens such a captivating city. Begin your journey with a drive past of Panathenaic Stadium, the site of the first modern Olympic Games in 1896.
Continue past some of Athens' most iconic landmarks, including the Temple of Olympian Zeus, Hadrian's Arch, the Hellenic Parliament, the Monument of the Unknown Soldier, the Academy, the University, the National Library, and Constitution Square (Syntagma).
Next, visit the Acropolis, where you'll explore the architectural masterpieces of Greece's Golden Age — the Propylaea, the Temple of Athena Nike, the Erechtheion, and the Parthenon, often hailed as the pinnacle of classical harmony and beauty.
Conclude your tour by visiting the New Acropolis Museum, home to a stunning collection of classical-era masterpieces and sculptures, where these ancient treasures have finally found their rightful home.
